Complete an Assignment Outside of Your Club

External training is designed to help you complete an assignment outside of your home club. You need approval to complete an assignment in another club or outside of the Toastmasters environment.

To request and complete an assignment outside of your home club, follow these steps:

- Complete all fields on this form and select Submit.
- This request will be forwarded to your vice president education.
- When your vice president education approves this request, you will receive a notification.
- When you have finished your assignment, mark external training complete on your transcript.
- Your vice president education will receive an automatic notification to validate your assignment.
- When they have validated it, the external training will appear as complete on your transcript.
