

David Morgenthaler, ACG, ALB

Floor Candidate for Division K Director

After retiring from a 30-year Army career, I knew all about public speaking. I was surprised and humbled about how little I knew. So, in March 2013, I joined Toastmasters to learn public speaking. My public speaking journey over the last seven years has been one of continuous learning. I look forward to traveling with you on the Toastmasters Pathway as the Division K Director for 2020 – 2021.

What will Toastmasters look like next year? The answer resides in the state of the unknown. Thriving in the unknown requires that Division Directors constantly communicate, continually plan for the next event, and teach others. The most important leadership trait is decisiveness. I bring 30 years of operational planning experience into Division K Director position. As a result of my experiences, I came up with the ABC3 rule: Always Be Communicating, Coaching, and Checking.

I have three rules for Toastmasters: have fun, learn something, and leave feeling better. Making Toastmasters fun, satisfying, and lifetime-relevant will challenge all of us. Working together, we can meet that challenge. Again, I look forward to serving with you as Division K Director.
