

Toastmasters International District 55 invites you to be a corporate sponsor for our April 12-13, 2019 Annual Conference in Austin, Texas. For 95 years, Toastmasters International, a non-profit organization, has offered its members the opportunity to enhance and develop their communication and leadership skills. As a member of our community, your company plays a vital role in our growth and success by offering our members and your employees the opportunity to learn and develop.

This year conference's theme, "The Greatest Show...You Don't Want to Miss", will bring outstanding and experienced speakers to our Toastmaster community, such as the 2010 Toastmasters World Champion of Public Speaking, David Henderson, our keynote speaker.

Corporate sponsorships have allowed District 55 to provide high-quality speakers and educational sessions each year. We are asking you to join us by co-sponsoring our 2019 Conference at one of the sponsorship levels indicated on the attached form.

By co-sponsoring, your business will be an integral part of the conference, with an opportunity to advertise your business. Furthermore, depending on your contribution level, your organization will be recognized on our website and in the conference program.

District 55 covers a territory from Temple south to the Rio Grande Valley, east to Victoria and west to Abilene. Over 200 attendees are expected this year's conference. Thanks to your sponsorship we will be able to provide the caliber of speakers and educational topics to attract such a crowd. Our organization is passionately committed to enhancing our members' learning experience and commitment to self-development via public speaking and leadership.

Please review the sponsorship opportunities for District 55's "The Greatest Show...You Don't Want to Miss" conference and complete and send me the attached corporate sponsorship form with your payment by March 29, 2019. Your payment can be via check or in kind by sponsoring one of our speakers' travel expenses, the cost of the conference program or providing gift cards or items that can be auctioned at the conference for fundraising. Gentlemen:

Date of original group exemption letter: July 13, 1962

Based on the information supplied, we rule that the new subordinates you recently submitted for addition to your group exemption roster are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. This ruling supplements your original group exemption letter..

Each subordinate is required to file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax, if its gross receipts in each year are normally more than $5,000. If filing is required, and if you do not include the subordinates in a group return, each must file the Form 990 by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of its annual accounting period.

The new subordinates are not required to file a Form 1120 income tax return. However, if they are subject to tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code, they must file Form 990-T.

The new subordinates are not liable for Federal unemployment taxes. They are liable for social security taxes only if they have filed waiver of exemption certificates, as provided in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act. (Your District Director will be glad to tell you more about the latter point.)

Donors may deduct contributions to your new subordinates, as provided by section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to or for the use of the new subordinates are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes under sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Next year, within 45 days after your annual accounting period closes, please send us two copies of the following information about your subordinates:

1. A statement describing all changes during the year in the purposes, character, or method of operation of your subordinates.
2. A list showing the name, employer identification number (if the subordinate is required to file Form 990), and mailing address, including ZIP Code, of each subordinate on your group exemption roster that during the year:
 - a. changed its name or address;
 - b. was deleted from the roster; or
 - c. was added to the roster.

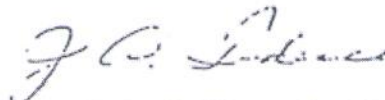

A directory of subordinates may be substituted for this list if it includes the required information and identifies the affected subordinates according to the three categories above.

3. For subordinates added to the roster, a letter signed by one of your principal officers containing or attaching:
 - a. a statement that the information upon which your present group exemption letter is based applies to the new subordinates;
 - b. a statement that each has given you written authorization to add its name to the roster;
 - c. a list of those to which the Service previously issued separate rulings or determination letters relating to exemption; and
 - d. a statement that none of the new subordinates is a private foundation as defined in section 509(a) of the Code.
4. If applicable, a statement that your group exemption roster did not change during the year.

Please be sure to enter your employer identification number on all your tax returns and in your correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Chief, Rulings Section
